

Become a Member of the UT Gardens

Thank you for your interest in the UT Gardens. With locations in Knoxville, Crossville, and Jackson, Tennessee, the UT Gardens are open free to the public, which means the growth and development of our programs is almost entirely dependent upon private support from people like you.

Member benefits include our Gardens magazine mailed out in the spring and fall, a 10% discount off plant sale purchases, reciprocal admission benefits at over 300 gardens across the US, and discounted fees for Gardens workshops and classes.

Thanks again for your support. It is vital to our success!
